Battle Creek does not have temporary lodging, billeting, corporate lodging, etc. Many of the motels/hotels have suites with queen or king size beds, kitchenettes, and living rooms that may be rented for extended periods of time, but must be reserved in advance. Some of the local apartment complexes have short-term leases, usually 6 months is the minimum. Only one apartment complex will lease month-to-month. One condominium complex is for transitioning employees and may be leased for up to one year; reservations in advance required. Listed below are some of the various companies and what they offer.
